LSB CIRCULAR NO. 4/2000

To: All Registered Surveyors

THE LAND SURVEYORS (APPROVED ASSISTANT SURVEYORS) RULES 2000

With the coming into operation of the Land Surveyors (Amendment) Act on 1 Mar 2000, the Board has made the Land Surveyors (Approved Assistant Surveyors) Rules 2000.

2 The name of your field assistants and their particulars have been transferred to the Register of Approved Assistant Surveyors kept and maintained under Section 16B of the Land Surveyors Act. Henceforth, please use the attached form prescribed in the Land Surveyors (Approved Assistant Surveyors) Rules 2000 when seeking approval of assistant surveyors.

3 Please note that your assistant surveyors should meet one of the requirements as stipulated in LSB Circular 6/97 dated 24 Nov 97:

- (i) He must complete and pass the Cadastral Surveying Course conducted by the Singapore Institute of Surveyors and Valuers; or
- (ii) He must possess a Technician Diploma in Land Surveying.

4 However, the Board may consider your applications for assistant surveyors who do not have the above-recognised qualifications on the ground that they have been doing survey work, and grant conditional approval. The assistant surveyors concerned should complete and pass the Cadastral Surveying Course by 31 Dec 2001.

5 New authority cards will be issued to your approved assistant surveyors. The Chief Surveyor will follow up on this.

6 Your attention is also drawn to the following Sections of the Land Surveyors Act pertaining to assistant surveyors:

- 16A - Registered surveyor to employ approved assistant surveyor.
- 16C - Registered surveyor to notify Board of cessation in employment.
- 16D - Approval may be revoked or suspended.
- 16E - Penalty under Part V A.
